

Kim Appoints George Steven as Pre-Sales Consultant

George brings more than thirty years experience to the role

London, April 12, 2023: Kim (www.kimdocument.com), the no-code, SaaS, patent-protected document generation, assembly, and workflow automation platform, today announced it has appointed George Steven as a pre-sales consultant. In his new role, George will be responsible for supporting the global sales team and prospective clients during the sales cycle.

George joins Kim from Norton Rose Fulbright, where he was focusing on automating legal processes. George has also been the CTO of DocGovern, a Document Automation Consultancy, as well as Pre-sales at AbacusNext.

George brings over thirty years of experience in digital transformation, data and automation software, having worked with some of the leading companies in the industry.

"We are thrilled to have George join our team at Kim," said Samantha Jefferies, VP of Business Development at Kim. "His extensive experience and expertise will be invaluable as we continue to grow and expand our business. We believe that his skills and knowledge will help us achieve our goals and drive the company forward."

Commenting on his appointment, George said, "I am excited to join Kim and to be part of a dynamic and growing team. I look forward to contributing my skills and expertise to help the company achieve its strategic objectives and realize its full potential."
